

NOW IN INDIA

FULL ECNLP AND ANLP (INDIA) COACHING CERTIFICATION PROGRAMME

This fully-accredited programme is run over three levels, culminating in full certification as a “Certified Advanced Coach” and led by International Master Trainer and Coach, Dr David Lincoln

The European Community of NLP is an Europe wide membership and accreditation body with representation around the world. Your graduation on this programme will earn you full certification AND automatic Verified member status with the ECNLP. Along with full membership of ANLP (India) Coaching section.

Who is this programme for?

Coaching is already recognised internationally as a crucial tool for increasing performance in business, study, sport and many others areas. If you are interested in helping others achieve their potential then this programme is right for you. Past participants include:

- Managers at all levels
- Business owners and Directors
- Professional and aspiring coaches
- Leaders
- Teachers
- Trainers
- Students
- Therapists
- Healthcare professionals
- HR professionals
- Parents!
- And more!
- You, an aspiring coach

Study in three simple stages

This programme has been broken down into three levels so that you can study and certify at a pace that suits your specific needs. Each is a highly practical programme and will involve:

- Presentation by your Trainer
- Demonstration
- Practical exercises
- Discussion
- Open question sessions

Content highlights are:

Certified Coach Level One (three days)

This will be a highly practical programme with constant opportunity to develop and practice new skills in a safe and supportive environment. You will work through the entire coaching process, thus ensuring your understanding and readiness to put your skills into action as a Certified Level One Coach.

- Coaching or mentoring – what’s the difference?
- Who can you Coach?
- Building the coaching relationship
- The Four Blocks to Performance
- The Four Step Coaching Process – step by step to success with your clients from goal to conclusion
- Effective coaching questions
- Motivational coaching
- Scope of practice and ethical coaching
- Supervision – why and how
- The “business” of being a coach – how to get clients and keep them

Level one cost is INR 25,000 including breakfast, lunch, tea and programme material

Certified Coach Level Two (three days)

This second level is dedicated to two specialist coaching processes and you will have opportunity to practice both thoroughly with effective feedback to help you develop your skills to an even deeper level.

- Review of learning from Level One
- Solution Focused Coaching – step by step through this powerful and highly effective Coaching model with practical experience
- The Miracle Question
- The Power of ONE
- Coaching for arising issues – how to work in the moment

- Coaching for life balance – how to elicit the client’s presenting life balance and work step by step to achieve their desired balance
- Tools for effective coaching – some powerful and impactful tools and techniques to help you succeed with your clients

Level two cost is INR 25,000 including breakfast, lunch, tea and programme material

Certified Advanced Coach (three days)

This Advanced level takes you into exploration of a different application for coaching – working with groups and teams. Again, this is a practical programme with emphasis on developing skills through practice.

- Review from Levels One and Two
- Team Coaching – what’s the difference
- Multi-level goal setting
- Group dynamics in a coaching process
- Action Coaching
- Cause or Effect?
- Final assessment sessions

This final level will include one-to-one sessions with your Trainer for personal feedback.

Level three cost is INR 25,000 including breakfast, lunch, tea and programme material

*Successful certification as an Advanced Coach will also qualify you for Membership of ANLP coaching section

To book your place email psychologist@therapist.net or call Rana on +91 7774838407

STOP PRESS

Special Offer: book all three levels for INR 60,000 only