NEURO LINGUISTIC PROGRAMMING

Trainer's

Training

2019 April 27th - 14 days

The Trainer's Journey

The Trainers Training programme is an excellent tool for anyone who is involved in training and educating people, learning and training specialists, people interested in training, instructors and training managers and NLP Master Practitioners desirous of becoming NLP Trainers.

Traditional training methods depend heavily on logic, theory and teaching techniques designed for conscious learning which actually favour a certain proportion but by no means all of the population.

Our NLP Trainers Training incorporates NLP techniques and unconscious learning and is suited for a variety of learning styles. It engages the learner at a pace and level that is best suited to them. This in turn maximises the learning experience for the learner.

And even if you are not an NLP trained person, the Training is still effective in bringing about a magical change into your training style leading you to be an even more effective trainer.

This training will make a difference in your life as a presenter, as a person and as a human being.

What you GAIN?

- An internationally accredited and accepted qualification as a Trainer.
- Greater confidence with different learning styles and approaches to training.
- Knowledge of how training courses are designed.
- Helping you inspire others to think and to develop opinions and ideas in training.
- Maximize creative and innovative training methods.
- Knowledge of how to develop and implement appropriate assessment methods.
- Helping you build trust with your trainees.
- Maximising effective work in groups / teams.
- Helping avoid problems and conflict.
- Helping groups / teams to take action.
- Maximising listening skills and effectiveness of training.
- Guaranteed improved capacity for working effectively with different types of trainees.
- Coaching techniques in training.
- Helping avoid problems and conflict.

- Helping you empower individuals, groups and teams to reach decisions, set goals, learn new skills.

Who should ATTEND?

The course is open to anyone at any level that fits into the below mentioned categories:

- Trainers/ facilitators involved with groups and individuals
- Facilitators looking to upskill and refresh their skills
- People interested in training
- Learning development specialists
- Instructors of groups and individuals
- Training Managers
- Trainers who would like to register with ANLP India

The ideal delegate is likely to be new to training, or has limited training experience.

A certification in NLP as a Master Practitioner is preferable and desirable though not mandatory (such candidates will be provided with a Trainer certification as against NLP Trainer certification).

LEARNING process

The pace is fast & intense but enjoyable. The fun interactive activities will ensure that your learning potential is constantly maximised throughout the programme. Every area of training from course design down to effective coaching will be covered.

Certification assessment is both thorough and continuous throughout the programme and will include presentations, demonstrations, exercise monitoring and content knowledge.

Why choose US?

Professional trainers are able to design and deliver training sessions that capture the delegates' imagination from the outset.

They use a range of techniques to ensure that their audience is fully engaged at all times, irrespective of whether they are delivering a theory session, or an experiential workshop.

This highly interactive workshop will ensure that you have the skills, knowledge and techniques that are essential if you are to succeed in a training environment.

We help YOU become that professional!
